- 2.8. The Company may establish branches and open representative offices in and outside the territory of the Russian Federation.
The establishment of branches and the opening of representative offices by the Company outside the territory of the Russian Federation shall also be carried out in accordance with the legislation of the foreign state where the branches and representative offices are located, unless otherwise stipulated by international agreements of the Russian Federation.
A branch of the Company shall be an economically autonomous subdivision of the Company with a location which differs from the location of the Company, which fulfills all of the Company's functions, including the functions of a representative office, or a part of those functions.
A representative office of the Company shall be an economically autonomous subdivision with a location which differs from the location of the Company, which sole scope is to represent and protect the interests of the Company.
A branch and a representative office shall not be deemed to be legal entities, and shall act on the basis of a statute which has been approved by the Company. Branches and representative offices shall be provided with assets by the Company which established them, and those assets shall be recorded both on their separate balance sheets and on the Company's balance sheet.

The Head of a branch and the Head of a representative office shall be appointed by the Company and shall act on the basis of a power of attorney issued by the Company.

The branch and the representative office of the Company shall carry out activities in the name of the Company. Liability for the activities of the branch and the representative office of the Company shall be borne by the Company.

The Charter of the Company contains information regarding its branches and representative offices in the Appendix.

2.9. The Company may have subsidiary and dependent companies with the rights of a legal entity in the territory of the Russian Federation.

The Company may have subsidiary and dependent companies with the rights of a legal entity outside the territory of the Russian Federation, established in accordance with the legislation of the foreign state where the subsidiary or dependent companies are located, unless otherwise stipulated by an international agreement of the Russian Federation.

A company shall be deemed to be subsidiary if the Company, by virtue of having a predominant share in its charter capital, or in accordance with an agreement concluded between them, or for other reasons, is able to determine the decisions which are taken by that company.

A subsidiary company shall not be liable for the debts of the Company.

If the Company has the right to give instructions to the subsidiary company which are binding for the latter, it shall be jointly liable with the subsidiary company with respect to transactions which are concluded by the latter in order to execute these instructions. The Company shall be considered as having the right to give binding instructions to the subsidiary company only in the event that this right is stipulated in the agreement with the subsidiary company or in the charter of the subsidiary company.

In the event that a subsidiary company becomes insolvent (bankrupt) through the fault of the Company, the latter shall bear subsidiary liability for its debts. The insolvency (bankruptcy) of a subsidiary shall be considered to have occurred through the fault of the Company only in the event that the Company used the aforementioned right and (or) ability to cause the subsidiary company to act, knowing that the action would result in the insolvency (bankruptcy) of the subsidiary company.

The shareholders of a subsidiary company shall have the right to claim compensation from the Company for losses caused to the subsidiary company through its fault. Losses shall be considered to have been caused through the fault of the Company only in the event that the Company used its right and (or) ability to cause the subsidiary company to act, knowing that the subsidiary would incur losses as a result.

A company shall be deemed to be dependent if the Company holds more than 20 per cent of the voting shares in the first company.

If the Company has acquired more than 20 per cent of the voting shares in a commercial company, the Company shall be obliged immediately to publish information on this in accordance with a procedure to be determined by the Bank of Russia and the federal anti-monopoly body.

2.10. The Company shall have the right to conduct an open subscription to the shares which it issues and to sell them freely.

The Company shall have the right to conduct a closed subscription to shares which it issues except in those cases where the possibility of conducting a closed subscription is restricted by the requirements of legal acts of the Russian Federation.

The number of shareholders in the Company shall not be restricted.

The Company and its shareholders shall have no preferential right to acquire shares alienated by the shareholders of the Company.

- any other types of activity not prohibited by Russian federal laws.

3.2. Certain types of activity, a list of which shall be determined by federal laws, may be carried out by Company only on the basis of a special permit (licence). If the conditions for granting a special permit (licence) to engage in a certain type of activity stipulate that the activity concerned must be the sole activity carried out by the holder, then the Company shall not have the right to engage in any types of activity other than the types of activity which are envisaged in the special permit (licence) and concomitant types of activity for the duration of the validity of the special permit (licence).

Article 4. Charter Capital of the Company

- 4.1. The charter capital of the Company shall consist of the nominal value of shares in the Company which has been acquired by shareholders (outstanding shares).
All shares of the Company are registered shares.
The charter capital of the Company amounts to 35.371.898.370 (thirty-five billion three hundred seventy-one million eight hundred ninety-eight thousand three hundred seventy) rubles.
The charter capital of the Company is divided into 35.371.898.370 (thirty-five billion three hundred seventy-one million eight hundred ninety-eight thousand three hundred seventy) ordinary shares.
The nominal value of each ordinary share of the Company is 1 (one) ruble.
The charter capital of the Company shall determine the minimum amount of the Company's assets which guarantee its creditors' interests.
- 4.2. The charter capital of the Company may be increased by means of increasing the nominal value of shares or distributing additional shares.

The Company's charter capital may be increased by distributing additional shares at the expense of the Company's assets. The Company's charter capital by increasing the nominal value of shares shall be increased only at the expense of the Company's assets. The amount by which the Company's charter capital is increased at the expense of the company's assets must not exceed the difference between the value of the Company's net assets and the sum of the Company's charter capital and reserve fund.

Where the Company's charter capital is increased at the expense of its assets by means of distribution of additional shares, those shares shall be distributed among all the shareholders. In this respect, each shareholder shall be allocated shares of the same category (type) as the shares which he already owns, and in proportion to the number of shares owned by him.

It shall not be permitted to increase the Company's charter capital at the expense of its assets by means of distribution of additional shares, which results in the formation of fractional shares.

- 4.3. The Company's charter capital may be reduced by means of reducing the nominal value of shares or reducing the total number thereof, including by means of acquisition of a portion of the shares in cases stipulated by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

The reduction of the Company's charter capital by means of acquisition and cancellation of a portion of shares shall be permitted.

The Company shall not have the right to reduce its charter capital if such reduction would cause the size thereof to fall below the minimum size of the charter capital which is determined in accordance with this Federal Laws of the Russian Federation as at the date of the submission of documents for the State registration of the relevant amendments to the Company's charter, and if the Company is obliged to reduce its charter capital in accordance with the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" - as at the date of the Company's State registration.

Article 5. Shares, Bonds and Other Issuance Securities of the Company

- 5.1. The issuance security is any paper security, including a non-documentary security, marked by the following features:
- 5.1.1. it records the totality of property and non-property rights subject to certification, assignment, and unconditional exercise with the observance of the form and order established by this Federal Law;
 - 5.1.2. it is placed by issues;
 - 5.1.3. it grants rights equal in time and extent within any one inside issue, regardless of the time of acquiring a security.
- 5.2. The share is an issuance security that fixes the rights of its owner (shareholder) to receive part of the profit of a corporation in the form of dividends, to participate in the management of the corporation, and to receive part of the property that remains after its liquidation. The share is an inscribed security.
- 5.3. The bond is an issuance security that fixes the right of its holder to receive a bond from the issuer at its nominal value, in the period of time provided for by it, or other property equivalent. The bond may likewise provide for the right of its holder to receive the interest, fixed in it, on the nominal value thereof or for other property rights. The income on a bond is interest or discount.

- 5.4. The Company shall distribute ordinary shares and shall have the right to distribute one or more types of preferred shares. The nominal value of preferred shares distributed must not exceed 25 per cent of the Company's charter capital.
- 5.5. The Company shall have the right to distribute additional shares and other issuance securities by subscription and by conversion.
- 5.6. The Company shall have the right to distribute shares and issuance securities of the company, which are convertible into shares, by open or closed subscription.
- 5.7. Payment for additional shares of the Company which are distributed by subscription shall be made at a price to be determined by or according to the pricing procedure determined by the Board of Directors of the Company (hereinafter – the “Board of Directors”) in accordance with Article 77 of the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”, but not lower than their nominal value. The placing price of additional shares that are distributed by subscription, or the pricing procedure shall be included into the resolution concerning the increase of the Company's charter capital by means of placement of additional shares, unless such resolution envisages that the price or the pricing procedure will be established by the Company's Board of Directors not later than the beginning of additional shares placement.
- 5.8. In certain cases set by the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”, the Company's shareholders have the preemptive right (the right to acquire additional shares and equity securities, which are convertible into shares, placed via public offering, in the firm proportionate to the number of shares of the same category already held).
The price at which additional shares are distributed to persons who exercise the preferential right to acquire such securities may be lower than the price at which they are distributed to other persons, but not by more than 10 per cent.
- 5.9. The size of the fee of an intermediary who participates in the distribution of additional shares of the Company by subscription must not exceed 10 per cent of the distribution price of the shares.
- 5.10. Additional shares and other issuance securities of the Company which are distributed by subscription shall be distributed subject to the condition that they be paid for in full. Payment for additional shares which are distributed by subscription may be made in the form of money, securities, other objects or property rights or other rights which have a monetary value. The form of payment for additional shares shall be determined by the decision on the distribution thereof. Payment for other issuance securities may be made only in the form of money.
Where payment for additional shares is made by non-monetary means, the monetary value of assets which are contributed as payment for shares shall be assessed by the Board of Directors in accordance with Article 77 of the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”.
Where payment for shares is made by non-monetary means, an independent valuer must be engaged to determine the market value of such assets, unless otherwise established by law. The amount of the value assessment of assets made by the Board of Directors may not be greater than the amount of the value assessment made by the independent valuer.
- 5.11. The Company shall have the right to issue bonds after its charter capital has been fully paid up. In case the decision to distribute the bonds that may be redeemed by the Company's placed shares is made, the rules provided for by the Federal Law shall apply. Acquisition of shares as a result of bonds redeeming does not release the acquirer from his obligations provided for by Federal Laws.

- 5.12. The conversion of ordinary shares into preferred shares, bonds and other securities shall not be permitted.
The conversion of preferred shares into bonds and other securities, except for ordinary shares and preferred shares of other types, shall not be permitted.
The conversion of preferred shares into ordinary shares and other preferred shares shall be permitted.
- 5.13. The Company may accomplish consolidation or split of shares.
- 5.14. If it is impossible for a shareholder to acquire a whole number of shares when a preferential right to acquire additional shares is exercised and when shares are consolidated, fractions of shares (hereinafter, “fractional shares”) shall be formed.
A fractional share shall confer on the shareholder owning it the rights which are conferred by a share of the relevant category (type) to an extent that corresponds to the fraction of the whole share which it represents.
For the purposes of the reflection of distributed shares in a company’s charter, all distributed fractional shares shall be totalled. In the event that this results in the formation of a fractional number, the number of distributed shares shall be expressed as a fractional number in the company’s charter.
Fractional shares shall be circulated on the same basis as whole shares. In the event that one person buys two or more fractional shares of the same category (type), those shares shall form one whole share and (or) a fractional share equal to the sum of those fractional shares.
- 5.15. The Company shall have the right to acquire shares which it has distributed on the basis of a decision of the General Shareholders’ Meeting of the Company (hereinafter – the “General Shareholders’ Meeting”) to reduce the charter capital of the Company by means of acquiring a part of distributed shares in order to reduce their overall number.
The Company shall not have the right to adopt a decision to reduce the charter capital of the Company by means of acquiring a part of distributed shares in order to reduce their overall number if the nominal value of shares remaining in circulation would become lower than the minimum amount of charter capital which is stipulated in the Federal Law of the Russian Federation.
Shares which are acquired by the Company on the basis of a decision which has been adopted by the General Shareholders’ Meeting to reduce the size of the Company’s charter capital by means of acquiring shares by the Company in order to reduce their overall number shall be cancelled upon acquisition.
- 5.16. The Company shall have the right to acquire shares distributed by it by decision of the Board of Directors in all other cases not stipulated by Item 5.15 of the present Charter.
- 5.17. The Company shall not have the right to adopt a decision for the Company to acquire shares if the nominal value of shares of the Company in circulation would constitute less than 90 per cent of the company’s charter capital.
- 5.18. Payment for shares upon their acquisition shall be made in the form of money. The time period within which shares are acquired may not be less than thirty days. The price at which a company acquires shares shall be determined in accordance with Article 77 of the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”.
- 5.19. Not later than thirty days before the beginning of the time period during which shares are to be acquired, the Company shall be obliged to inform shareholders holding particular categories (types) of shares which it has been decided to be acquired by the Company.
- 5.20. Shares of the Company come under the Company’s control shall not confer voting rights and shall not be taken into account when counting votes, and dividends shall not accrue on them. Shares of the Company come under the Company's control must be sold at a price not lower than their market value not later than one year from the day of the transfer of ownership rights on such shares to the Company, otherwise the General Shareholders' Meeting must adopt a decision to reduce the Company's charter capital by means of cancelling those shares.

Article 6. Rights of Company's Shareholders

- 6.1. Each ordinary share of the Company shall confer the same volume and extent of rights on the shareholder who holds it.
- 6.2. Shareholders which hold ordinary shares in the Company may participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting with the right to vote on all issues within their competence and shall have the right to receive dividends, and, in the event of the Company's liquidation, the right to receive part of its assets.
- 6.3. Shareholders (a shareholder) possessing in the aggregate no less than 10 per cent of the voting shares of the Company shall have the right to demand that an extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting be held.
Shareholders (a shareholder) possessing in the aggregate no less than 2 per cent of the voting shares in the Company shall have the right to propose issues for the agenda of the annual General Shareholders' Meeting and to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors and the Internal Audit Commission of the Company (hereinafter – the "Internal Audit Commission"), the number of which may not exceed the number of members of the body in question.
In the event that the proposed agenda of an extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting includes an issue concerning the election of members of the Board of Directors, shareholders (a shareholder) possessing in the aggregate no less than 2 per cent of the voting shares in the Company shall have the right to nominate candidates for election to the Board of Directors, the number of which may not exceed the number of members of the Board of Directors.
- 6.4. A shareholder shall have the right to appeal through the courts against a decision which has been made by the General Shareholders' Meeting in violation of the requirements of the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies", other legal acts of the Russian Federation and the Company's charter in the event that it did not participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting or voted against the adoption of that decision, and the decision in question violates its rights and legal interests.
- 6.5. Each shareholder which holds shares of particular categories (types) which it has been decided by the Board of Directors for the Company to acquire shall have the right to sell those shares, and the Company shall be obliged to acquire them. In the event that the total number of shares for which applications for acquisition by the Company have been received exceeds the number of shares which may be acquired by the Company, shares shall be acquired from shareholders in proportion to the requests presented.
- 6.6. Shareholders which hold voting shares shall have the right to request that all or part of the shares held by them be repurchased by the Company in the event of: the re-organization of the company or the conduction of a major transaction involving assets whose value is more than 50 per cent of the balance-sheet value of the Company's assets if they voted against the adoption of the decision on its re-organization or on the approval of the said transaction or did not participate in voting on these issues;

introduction of amendments and additions to the Company's charter (making a decision by the General Shareholders' Meeting that is considered as a basis for amending the Company's charter) or the approval of a new version of the Company's charter which restrict their rights, if they voted against the adoption of that decision or did not participate in voting;

making a decision by the General Shareholders' Meeting to submit an application on delisting of the Company's shares and (or) issuance securities of the Company convertible into the Company's shares, if they have voted against such resolution or have not participated in the voting.

- 6.7. Shareholders of the Company, in line with the order set forth in the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" shall have access to the documents which are envisaged by clause 1 of Article 89 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies":
 - 6.7.1. The Foundation agreement of the Company;
 - 6.7.2. The Charter of the Company, amendments thereto registered in the established manner, the decision to form the Company, the Company's state registration document;
 - 6.7.3. Documents confirming the Company's rights in respect of the assets recorded on its balance sheet;
 - 6.7.4. Internal documents of the Company;
 - 6.7.5. The regulations on the branch or representative office of the Company;
 - 6.7.6. The annual reports;
 - 6.7.7. Financial statements;
 - 6.7.8. The minutes of General Shareholders' Meetings (the decisions of the shareholder being the owner of all the voting shares of the Company), decisions of the Board of Directors, Executive Board and Internal Audit Commission;
 - 6.7.9. Ballot papers and also powers of attorney (copies thereof) for participation in a General Shareholders' Meeting;

- 6.11. Audits (inspections) of the financial and economic activity of the Company shall be carried out at any time at the request of the shareholders (a shareholder) of the Company possessing at least 10 per cent of the voting shares of the Company.

Article 7. Dividends

- 7.1. The Company shall have the right, on the basis of the results for the first quarter, six months and nine months of a financial year and (or) on the basis of the results for a financial year, to adopt decisions concerning (announce) the payment of dividends on distributed shares, unless otherwise provided for by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies". A decision concerning the payment (announcement) of dividends on the basis of the results for the first quarter, six months and nine months of a financial year may be adopted within three months after the period in question has ended.
- The Company shall be obliged to pay dividends announced for shares of each category (type), unless otherwise provided for by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies". Dividends shall be paid in cash or by assets upon decision of the General Shareholders' meeting.
- The source of payment of dividends shall be the profit of the Company after taxation (the net profit of a company). The net profit of the Company shall be determined on the basis of data in the Company's accounting reports.
- 7.2. Decision on the payment (announcement) of dividends shall be adopted by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- This decision shall determine the amount of dividends on shares of each category (type), form of payment, procedure for dividends payment in non-monetary form, date for which the persons entitled to receive the dividends are determined. Herewith, the decision as related to the establishment of the date on which the persons entitled to receive the dividends are determined shall be adopted upon the Company Board of Director's proposal only.
- 7.3. The amount of the dividends shall not exceed the amount of dividends recommended by the Company's Board of Directors.
- 7.4. The date on which the persons entitled to receive the dividends are determined in accordance with the decision on payment (announcement) shall not be established earlier than 10 days after the decision concerning the payment (announcement) of dividends, and shall not be later than 20 days after such decision is made. The period for the dividends payment to the nominal holder and the trust manager being the professional securities market participant that are registered in the register of the Company's shareholders shall not exceed 10 business days; and to the other persons registered in the register of the Company's shareholders - 25 business days starting from the date on which the persons entitled to receive the dividends are determined. The decision concerning payment (announcement) of dividends can establish shorter dividends payment period.

- 7.5. Dividends are paid to the persons who were the owners of the shares of the relevant category (type) or the persons exercising the rights on these shares in accordance with Federal Laws, as of the end of the transaction day on which the persons entitled to receive the dividends are determined in accordance with the decision on payment of the dividends.
- 7.6. A person that has not received the announced dividends due to the fact that the Company or the registrar does not have an accurate and necessary address or bank details, or due to any other delay by a creditor, shall have the right to claim these dividends (unclaimed dividends) within three years after the date when the decision to pay them out is made. The period to claim the unclaimed dividends shall not be recovered after expiry, except for cases when a person entitled to receive the dividends has not claimed them because of being affected by violence or threat.
